BLPR DATASET – LICENSE AGREEMENT

The BLPR dataset contains 4,268 street images with one or more vehicles and their license plates captured during the day and night, from different viewpoints. The dataset is intended to assist research efforts in developing and evaluating algorithms for Automatic License Plate Recognition (ALPR). It is made available only to academic researchers affiliated with educational or research institutions for non-commercial purposes.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The use of the BLPR dataset is governed by the following terms and conditions:

- All dataset access requests must specify which BLPR subset(s) are required (e.g., BLPR-A, BLPR-B, BLPR-C, or BLPR-D) and provide a brief explanation of the intended research purpose and justification for accessing the requested data;
- This dataset is provided "AS IS", without any express or implied warranty. Although every effort has been made to ensure accuracy, the authors do not take any responsibility for errors or omissions;
- Without the express written permission of the authors, any of the following will be considered illegal: redistribution, modification, and commercial usage of this dataset in any way or form, either partially or in its entirety;
- For the sake of privacy, images from this dataset may only be used for demonstration in academic publications and presentations;
- All users agree to take full responsibility and pay all damages, claims, judgments, or expenses resulting from the use of the BLPR dataset.
- All publications using the BLPR dataset should cite the following reference:

Send the signed license agreement to the author (Edwin Salcedo) by e-mail:

Send the signed license agreement by email to e.r.salcedoaliaga@qmul.ac.uk with the subject "[BLPR] Signed License Agreement". The email must specify the requested BLPR subset(s) and briefly explain the intended research purpose.

Your e-mail must be sent from a valid institutional account (.edu, .ac, or similar).
